

The Study of Apocalyptic and Millenarian Movements: Critical and Interdisciplinary Approaches

CALL FOR PAPERS:
CenSAMM Annual Conference 7-8 July 2022 (online)

The Centre for the Critical Study of Apocalyptic and Millenarian Movements is pleased to announce its 2022 conference, to be held online

7-8 July 2022

The theme of the conference is:

The Study of Apocalyptic and Millenarian Movements: Critical and Interdisciplinary Approaches

The aim of the conference is to facilitate critical and interdisciplinary discussion of apocalypticism, millenarianism and associated movements across time, place, and culture. Academic fields include anthropology, archaeology, biblical studies, critical theory, cultural studies, history, literary studies, political studies, psychology, religious studies, sociology, etc. The interdisciplinary scope is broadly understood to include methodologies, comparative approaches, and showcasing of research more specific to individual fields of expertise.

We invite individual paper proposals from scholars at all stages of their careers, and we welcome suggestions for group panels.

Please submit proposals to the Academic Directors, Prof. James Crossley and Dr Alastair Lockhart, at conference@censamm.org. Submissions should include a 300-word abstract and brief CV.

Deadline for proposals: 29 April 2022

There is no charge for participation.

See www.censamm.org for more information.
